CHENONCEAUX

Region :

AOP Touraine - Loire Valley

Grape Variety :

100 % Sauvignon Blanc

Yield :

55 hl/ha

Vinification :

This Sauvignon Blanc is selected by Thierry Delaunay from the best cuvées of Touraine Chenonceaux region which, once assembled and matured on fine lees, express all the qualities of the different terroirs of Cher river slopes, which bring a complexity, elegance and finesse to this wine. Worth to be called a great Loire white wine.

Pneumatic press

Alcoholic fermentation at 16°C

Ageing :

On fine lees with stirring during 6 months in stainless steel tank

Tasting Note :

Pale lemon in colour with green reflections. An intense and elegant nose combining tropical fruits and floral notes. The palate is fleshy and fresh, with clean minerality persisting on the finish.
